HILL COUNTY FAIR

LIVESTOCK DIVISION

January 25 - January 28, 2012

SUPERINTENDENT — Curtis Thompson

972-989-9709

FAIR MARSHAL — Raymond Nors

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

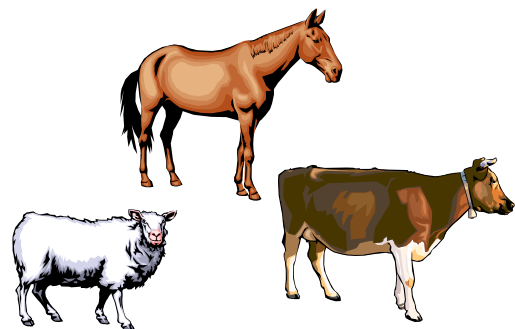

These Rules Are In Effect Until After Stock Show 2012

 No professional fitters will be allowed. Only Ag teachers, 4-H leaders, and/or family can fit animals.*

- The Hill County Fair Livestock Show will be held annually as part of the Hill County Fair in Hillsboro.
- All exhibitors and/or showmen in the Hill County Fair Livestock Show must be a bona fide member of a Hill County 4-H Club or FFA Chapter, and not be a high school graduate. The exhibitor will be ineligible if he/she has exhibited a project in another County Show during the current school year.
- All entries must be entered on the website (www.fairmanager.com/fairs/hill) by-Friday, December 16, 2011, by 11:00 p.m. If you have any questions on entries please contact your Ag teacher or 4-H leader.
- All exhibitors must own and exhibit their animal. Substitution of show men are allowed only for exhibitor having two or more animals in the same class, doctor's excuse or note from principal varifying another school activity. The Hill County Fair Livestock Show will enforce no pass-no play rule during the show. If the student is eligible to show he will be eligible to sell. It is the responsibility of the schools, County Agents and 4-H leaders to check grades. There will be no substitutions of showmen for failing students.
- The Livestock Committee is made up of the Show Superintendent and the Superintendents of the respective divisions.
- The Executive Committee will make last minute decisions on rules and protests and will serve as a sift committee for the fair.
- The Hill County Fair Livestock Show Executive Committee reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of, or in connection with, or incident to this show, with the exception of validation dates and ownership deadline.
- Any protest to be considered must be submitted in writing and accompanied by $25 cash to the Superintendent of the show before the animal shows. The Executive Committee will consider the protest. The superintendent of the division being protested will serve as an alternate to the committee.
- In no case shall the Hill County Fair Livestock Show nor any of the Show Superintendents and officials be held responsible for loss, injury, death or disability from disease, or from theft, hail storm, fire or from damages from any cause to the person or property, while any person or property is on the show grounds.
- Exhibitors may place a sign over each exhibit. Official organization cards should be used by members of such organizations. Tie areas will be assigned to each community. All exhibits will be tied in their respective areas.
- All animals must remain in designated pen or tie-out area after weigh-in and no exhibitor shall remove his or her exhibit from show grounds until the animal is shown.
- All cars and trailers will be parked in an area designated by the Superintendent of the show. The youth leaders will be responsible for seeing that the exhibitors drive in a manner that will be safe while around the show grounds.

13. Any exhibit erroneously entered may be entered correctly prior to show time by contacting the Superintendent of their division.
14. Scales will be provided at the show and all animals will be weighed and divided into classes according to these recorded weights. All animals will be weighed one time only, with weight tolerances of 10 lbs. for steers, 5 lbs. for hogs and 3 lbs. for lambs and goats. Any market animal below or above weight must be removed from the grounds immediately. Show Superintendent interpretation of weights and classes is final.
15. An animal may be shown only in one class.
16. Steers, breeding heifers, dairy, swine, lambs, goats and horses not in show condition, those not halter broken, or otherwise not desirable for show will be sifted by sift committee. If for any reason an animal cannot make its way into the show ring, it will not be eligible for judging.
17. Any comparable classes may be divided or combined at the Show Superintendent's discretion if the number of entries so warrants.
18. Numbered ribbons and prize money will be given in each breeding class. Showmanship buckles will be presented to a junior and senior participant in each division (except chickens, rabbits, breeding swine and breeding goats). Junior showmanship classes consist of exhibitors who are 13 years and younger. Senior showmanship classes consist of exhibitors 14 years and older. All exhibitors are eligible to return to compete for showmanship.
19. The number of places and amount of prize money will be determined by the number of entries in each breeding class.
20. No prize money will be given in market classes.
21. To compete for Grand Champion, the first place winner of each class will compete for Grand Champion of the Division. After the Champion has been selected, the second place animal of the class, from which the Champion has been selected, will compete for Reserve Champion.
22. Cattle may be hayed and watered in barn. Stalls must be cleaned daily and at end of show. Hay may not be used for bedding. Hog pens must be cleaned daily.
23. No student shall be allowed on fair grounds after 11:00 p.m. on Wednesday through Saturday.
24. All county show steers must be validated on the date designated for major show tag-in for steers. All market hogs, goats and sheep to be shown only at the county fair must be tagged in no later than Monday, October 24, 2011.
25. All tag-in sheets will be turned into the Extension Office by December 1, 2011.
26. The Hill County Fair reserves the right to test any animal or poultry officially entered in any division, for any foreign substance including drugs, chemicals or feed additives. Anyone found in violation will be disqualified and declared ineligible to receive premium money or sale proceeds. Carcass of disqualified animal or poultry will be disposed of per written instructions from USDA or FDA.
27. Exhibitors eligible for showmanship must own and exhibit their animal in that division.
28. Animal substitution rule applies in all market classes.
29. Drench guns allowed. Pumps not allowed.
30. No heat lamps allowed.

NOTE: If there are any questions about rules not mentioned all rules revert to Major Stock Show Rules.

PREMIUM SALE RULES

1. Each exhibitor may sell only one market animal. All Grand and Reserve Champion market animals will be sold.
2. When exhibitor has more than one animal eligible for sale, the exhibitor must declare within one hour after their last animal has shown which animal will be in the sale. If not declared in one hour the highest placing animal will be in the sale. If exhibitor has two animals placing the same the heaviest animal will be sold. There is no bump up.
3. An exhibitor who has the Grand or Reserve Champion pen of chickens or rabbits will be allowed to sell one large market animal if it is eligible to sell. Exhibitor can sell one large animal and only one tri-color Creative Arts and Education entry.
4. Each exhibitor is responsible for his or her animal after the sale.
5. All market animals will be sold according to the way they place. The Grand and Reserve Champions of each division will sell first with the rest of the animals alternating by division after each placing. The order will be as follows:
 1. Goats: Light, Medium, Heavy
 2. Swine: Light, Medium, Heavy
 3. Chickens: order of placing
 4. Rabbits: order of placing
 5. Steers: Light, Medium, Heavy
 6. Lambs: Light, Medium, Heavy
6. Only animals placing in the top 75% of each class will be eligible to sell. Rounding will be handled as follows: .50 and under will not sell but .51 and over will sell.
7. Each exhibitor must be present in the sale ring when his/her animal is sold. Substitutions are allowed only for participation in other school-sponsored activity or doctor's excuse. Request may be made to Livestock Superintendent to substitute for extenuating circumstances. (Vacations are not a valid excuse.)
8. All checks must be cashed within 60 days of the issue date of the check or be VOID.
9. A 5% commission on each market animal sold will be paid by the seller to the Livestock Division to cover building projects and auction expenses such as caps for buyers, printing of sale list, postage, etc. This commission will be deducted from the seller's check. Any money left over will go into an escrow account to be used for show facility improvements.
10. Exhibitor is to write a "Thank You" note to buyer purchasing his or her animal and make every effort to thank buyer in person.
